

Transgendered Housing

Institution	Accommodations
Carleton College	Students can select 'Transgendered' on their housing application and accommodations will be made on a case-by-case basis.
Dartmouth University	Application required including identification of student's sex and gender as well as the student's sex and gender preferences of his/her roommate. Allows for students to choose roommates.
Ithaca College	Student must complete a form through HRL, reviewed in consultation with the campus LGBT coordinator. Each case reviewed individually.
New York University	Students identify as GIM (Gender Identity Male) or GIF (Gender Identity Female) on their housing application, and are then paired with someone of the same gender interested in taking part in the program. Open to all students.
Tufts University	Students contact the director of the LGBT center to be their liaison between the student and HRL. Single occupancy room in a hall with mixed-gender students of the same class year or a single or double room in Rainbow House, the university's mixed gender housing unit.
University of Hawaii at Hilo	Students can select 'Transgendered' on their housing application and accommodations will be made for them.
University of Minnesota	Students call the Assistant Director of HRL to discuss housing options.
University of Wisconsin	Differently gendered and transgendered students are encouraged to contact the Director of the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender Campus Center who will then work with housing to provide proper accommodations for a particular student's needs.

Gender Neutral Housing

Institution	Accommodations
Colorado College	Participating students are allowed to live with any student of any biological sex or gender identification without self-identifying. Students must sign an agreement committing the to the values of the gender-neutral community.
Lewis &amp; Clark College	Gender Neutral housing is available to all students. Student who are interested in gender neutral housing must contact the office of Residential Life for consideration.
Oberlin College	An all-gender housing option is available to all returning students except in the all-male or all-female residence halls.
University of California - Riverside	Students self-identify and are allowed to live with whatever roommate the desire. If no specific roommate is requested any student who signs up for gender-neutral housing will be placed with that student. Rooms feature single-person restroom and shower facilities.
University of Pennsylvania	Upper level students may apply for and be assigned to gender neutral housing. Room assignments will be made without regard to gender.
University of Southern Maine	Gender Neutral housing is only available in certain residence halls and only to upperclassmen students.
Weslyan University	On the housing application, students can choose a gender neutral option. Weslyan matches students who chose the gender neutral option and houses them in various halls.