2. Colleagues Seeking Advice

Greetings Standing Committee for Men,

My office (Women and Gender Studies) is currently in the process of planning two programs that address masculinities and men. Ideally, we'd like to have a dialogue started with our faculty and staff and another event geared towards the community and especially our students.

If you have done a program or know someone who has done a program in the past that focuses on masculinities and men in higher education, would you be willing to share information about it?

Thank you.
