Proposal for the Consolidation of ACPA & NASPA

Monday, December 13, 2010, 2 p.m. – 3:30 p.m. EST

Current, elect and past presidents of ACPA will provide an overview of the proposal for a potential consolidation of ACPA and NASPA. Participants will learn about key features of the proposed structure of a new, comprehensive student affairs professional association, and will have the opportunity to share feedback and questions. This webinar offers participants the opportunity to learn more about this significant question regarding the future of ACPA and NASPA.

Panel Members

Heidi Levine is the Dean of Students at Cornell College in Mt. Vernon, Iowa and ACPA's Vice President.

Patty Perillo is Associate Dean of Students at Davidson College in Davidson, NC., Immediate Past President/Governing Board member and an ACPA/NASPA Consolidation Steering Committee member.

Susan Salvador is vice president of student services at Monroe Community College (MCC) in Rochester, New York and is ACPA's current President.

Dwayne Todd currently serves as the Vice President of Student Affairs and Dean of Students at the Columbus College of Art and Design (CCAD) in Columbus, OH and is the Director of Professional Development on the Governing Board for ACPA.
