1. 2011 Conference on College Men Program Proposals - Deadline 14 January 2011!

Conference on College Men
Masculinities in Higher Education
May 22-24, 2011
Indiana University Purdue University Indianapolis

Registration Opens January 2011!

Proposal Submission can be done here.

Program Submission Deadline: January 14, 2011
Notification of Submission Status: February 14, 2011

The Conference Committee encourages the submission of innovative proposals that address the conference theme of Masculinities in Higher Education, and consider the following issues:

Theoretical and Historical Foundations

This area will explore foundational literature, scholars, and conceptual frameworks related to men and masculinities in higher education. It will also explore the historical and overlapping progression of gender studies and student development theory.

Identity Intersections

This area will explore how race/ethnicity, sexual orientation, disability, socioeconomic status, and other facets of identity influence college men's construction, negotiation, and performance of gender.

Practical Considerations and Effective Interventions

This area will explore the practical applications of theory and research related to gender and masculinity programs and services. It will explore evidenced based programs and interventions related to men and masculinities that have proven effective in yielding successful outcomes.

2. Become an ACPA Ambassador
