3 'best fit' themes

The following categories describe the work interests of people who tend to succeed in this theme:

Realistic— You are a “doer.” You like physical activities and projects. You like to find the answers to problems by doing hands-on work instead of talking about solutions.

Investigative— You are a “thinker.” When you have a problem, you like to analyze it and look at different ways to solve it. You like to work by yourself, and you don’t like explaining your ideas to other people.

Artistic— You are a “creator.” You enjoy things like art, music, and books, and express your feelings easily. You don’t like rigid rules and structure.

Social— You are a “helper.” You like being around people and helping them with problems. Socializing is fun for you.

Enterprising— You are a “persuader.” You like to sell things or ideas. Prestige and power are important to you. You like to use your language skills to convince other people of your ideas.

Conventional— You are an “organizer.” Keeping things neat and organized is important to you. You like working with charts and reports, and work well with power and authority.
